

U12 Weekly Update

Hello everyone!

I want to thank you all for your patience last weekend with the challenging weather and last-minute changes. Also, thank you for the high attendance at last Saturday's dryland; it was very enjoyable to spend the afternoon with the kids in a different way.

Fortunately, the temperatures have normalized, and we will have new snow in the coming days.

Here is the schedule for this week:

Schedule:

Program	Day	Hour	Meeting Point	Equipment	Drop Off
Core Plus	Friday	9am	Chic Pea	All-mountain	2:20pm – Lightboard
Core and Core Plus	Saturday	9am	Chic Pea	GS	2pm – Chic Pea
Core and Core Plus	Sunday	9am	Chic Pea	GS	2pm – Chic Pea

Notes:

-Saturday and Sunday we will be training GS in Old Crow-Beauty arena, AM + PM session.

- For athletes, the training will finish at 2 pm, with drop-off at Chic Pea. (One coach will take the kids in the direction of Whistler Village, while another coach will take kids in the direction of Creekside.).

-If it's been more than two weeks since the athletes had their skis tuned and prepared appropriately, IT'S TIME FOR SKI TUNING. Several races and events are approaching, and we need to be prepared in advance. Athletes should learn to ski with sharper edges before the race.

Dryland Schedule:

Last Saturday, we started our dryland sessions, creating this space for athletes who want to do something more on Saturday afternoons. It's a great time to engage in recreational sports, work on coordination and balance exercises, and have a good time sharing with friends and teammates.

There is no extra payment needed; it is already included in the U12 program.
